RESTAURANTS

Caravin

9 WARD AVE, POTTS POINT

Frenchy snacks, delicious wine, good people! We love this Potts Point restaurant (and their unmissable chocolate mousse).

A.P. Bread and Wine

32 BURTON ST, DARLINGHURST

From day-to-night, A.P. Bread and Wine is our go-to for morning croissants, a lunch-time mackerel sandwich or twilight martini-oyster Happy Hour.

Sang by Mabasa

98 FITZROY ST, SURRY HILLS

Precise, explorative, modern Korean fare with heart, flair and only 24 seats.

South End

644 KING ST, NEWTOWN

Truly seasonal food from two lauded Sydney chefs, Hussein Sarhan and Alex Tong. Their elegant cooking leads the way with goodness, grace and goat's curd-heavy potato rösti.

Caravin

A.P. Bread and Wine

Vin-Cenzo's

174 LIVERPOOL ST, DARLINGHURST

Easy-to-love Italian favourites are available on demand at Vin-Cenzo's, the latest from the Bar Copains, Bessie & Alma's team.

Grandfathers

ANGEL PL, SYDNEY

Daily yum cha, mouth-numbing Sichuan and electric blue fish tanks make Grandfathers unforgettable. The prawn toast alone could bring a dynasty to its knees.

Grandfathers

Ester

46-52 MEAGHER ST, CHIPPENDALE

This celebrated Chippendale restaurant serves an innovative menu led by its wood-fired oven. Don't skip the fermented potato bread with kefir and trout roe. Umami city.

Olympus Dining

2 BAPTIST STREET, REDFERN

Olympus Dining takes modern Greek dining to new heights. Think wild weed spanakopita, grilled sardines and slow-roasted lamb shoulder with tzatziki.

NOM

166 RILEY ST, DARLINGHURST

Cosy family-run Japanese with a menu of izakaya favourites and special Junmai sake. Opt for fluffy tamago, crisp fried oysters or a selection of sashimi.

“I’D START THE DAY SLOWLY WITH A CUP OF FILTER COFFEE WITH MY WIFE IN OUR POTTS POINT APARTMENT. IF IT’S A SATURDAY, I’D MAKE MY WAY TO THE KINGS CROSS MARKETS TO GRAB SOMETHING TO EAT. I LOVE THE BACON AND EGG ROLLS THERE – NO FRILLS. ANOTHER COFFEE FROM PRIMARY TO FOLLOW, PERHAPS A FLAT WHITE THIS TIME. THEN A MORNING WALK THROUGH THE BOTANIC GARDENS, AND MAYBE EVEN ART GALLERY OF NSW – THE VIEW OF MURAKAMI’S SCULPTURES ALWAYS BRIGHTENS MY DAY. LUNCH WOULD BE AT GAKU ROBATA GRILL. THEIR RAMEN IS UNREAL. I’D GO FOR AN AFTERNOON SWIM AT NIELSEN PARK TO SOAK UP SOME SUN. AND SINCE WE’RE STAYING IN THE HOLIDAY MOOD, A SLOW DINNER AT SEAN’S AND LOOK OUT AT THE NORTH BONDI OCEAN.”

- Victoria Rose, Bar Copains

Perfect Days

Mapo Gelato

72 OXFORD ST, DARLINGHURST

Mapo’s produce-forward gelato has landed on Oxford Street. We’re enamoured by their ever-rotating granita served with just-churned mascarpone soft-serve.

Flour & Stone

53 RILEY ST, WOOLLOOMOOLOO

A Sydney icon. Nadine Ingram’s bakery has won hearts for 15 years and counting. We can’t go past a slice of Wholesome Carrot Cake or their signature Pannacotta Lamington.

Paramart

PARAMOUNT HOUSE HOTEL LOBBY,
80 COMMONWEALTH ST, SURRY HILLS

Our in-house mini mart stocked with snacks, sweets and things to sip. Baba’s Place Taramasalata? A.P. Bakery Crostini? Bar Planet martini? Add to cart!

Parami

SHOP 101/21 ALBERTA ST, SYDNEY

Parami serves individually-packed onigiri (Japanese rice balls), whisked matcha, and seasonal muffins from their laneway outpost. As they say, an onigiri a day keeps the doctor away.

Papi’s Tacos

147 OXFORD ST, DARLINGHURST

From food truck to permanent fixture, Papi’s has a cult following centred on perfect birria (beef) tacos with a triple chilli-spiced consommé.

Mapo Gelato

Top-notch coffee, minimalist design and Short Stop doughnuts feature in Dan Kim's new space. Can't make it to Marrickville? Their Potts Point outpost is going strong.

Outta Coffee

17 VALENTINE ST, HAYMARKET

Cult-status coffee and Iggy's croissants served streetside in Haymarket. Their iced oat matchas? Outta this world.

Reuben Hills

61 ALBION ST, SURRY HILLS

A split-level space with micro-roastery upstairs and café below. Enjoy a rotating list of specialty roasts and menu inspired by coffee-growing regions around the world.

Primary Marrickville

Perfect Days

“WAKE UP IN ONE OF THE SUITES AT PARAMOUNT HOUSE HOTEL. GRAB A COFFEE AT PCP DOWNSTAIRS OR A.P. HOUSE UPSTAIRS. ZIP TO PARAMI FOR A MATCHA AND ONIGIRI THEN B-LINE STRAIGHT TO TAMARAMA BEACH FOR A SURF AND A SWIM. VISIT LOVE RYAN’S CERAMICS STUDIO AT MACKENZIES BAY AND THROW SOME CLAY. LIME BIKE FROM THERE TO SONAR MUSIC STUDIOS IN MOORE PARK AND WORK ON SOME MUSIC. WALK OVER TO THE CRICKETER’S ARMS FOR A PINT. STROLL NEXT DOOR FOR AN EARLY DINNER AT SANG BY MABASA THEN PASKI FOR A WINE. LIME BIKE TO CAPYBARA FOR A SAUNA AND ICE BATH. THEN ROUND TO COVENT GARDEN HOTEL FOR KARAOKE. STOP BY MANGO COCO FOR A MANGO STICKY RICE. THEN END UP AT SPACE MOUNTAIN FOR A BOOGIE AND DROP SOME RECORDS ON SYDNEY’S BEST KEPT SECRET SOUND SYSTEM.”

SWOP

Perfect Days

“I LOVE WAKING UP NICE AND EARLY TO START WITH A BIG RUN AROUND THE HARBOUR, USUALLY WITH A FRIEND AND THEN FINISH WITH COFFEE AT PARAMI. THEN I’LL HEAD TO A CLASS AT STUDIO MOUVOIR (OF COURSE), FOLLOWED BY A QUICK BITE TO EAT AT A.P. HOUSE, BEFORE I SPEND THE DAY TEACHING AT MOUVOIR. ONE OF MY FAVOURITE THINGS TO DO AFTER A BIG DAY OF TEACHING AND MOVEMENT IS TO HEAD TO CAPYBARA AFTER TO UNWIND AND RECOVER. LUNCH USUALLY IS LIGHT AND NOURISHING, WITH SOMETHING LIKE A SWITCH OR ROOM10 SALAD AND SANDWICH. AND AT NIGHT I LOVE SOMETHING FUN AND VIBEY WITH MATES LIKE ALBERTO’S OR BELLA BRUTTA, BECAUSE NOTHING IS BETTER THAN A BIG BOWL OF PASTA OR PIZZA AND SOME WINE AFTER A BIG DAY!”

- Erin Brooks, Studio Mouvoir

Perfect Days

“WAKE UP TO SOME KISSES FROM MY BEAUTIFUL PARTNER ALEX, AND ENJOY A MORNING CHAT OVER A HOT BATCH BREW. WALK ACROSS THE STREET TO A.P. HOUSE AND GRAB COFFEE #2 AND A CHEESY VEGEMITE SNACK BEFORE WALKING UP TO OXFORD STREET AND JUMPING ON THE 333 TO TAMARAMA. ONCE IN TAMA, I’LL WALK DOWN TOWARDS THE BEACH AND STOP AT MY FLOWERMAN FOR MY THIRD INSTALMENT OF CAFFEINE, BEFORE ARRIVING AT MY POTTERY STUDIO. THE MORNING IS FILLED WITH CREATING, SWIMMING AND CATCHING UP WITH MY COMMUNITY. AS LUNCH ROLLS AROUND, I’LL FIRE UP THE BBQ AND COOK LUNCH FOR ALL THAT ARE THERE, LISTEN TO SOME TUNES AND ROAST IN THE SUN TO HELP DIGEST. BACK ON THE TOOLS FOR A FEW HOURS NOW THAT I’M ALL CHARGED UP. ONE LAST SWIM IN THE SEA BEFORE I CLOSE UP THE STUDIO AND HEAD BACK TO THE CITY... IT COULDN’T HURT TO GRAB A COLD ONE AT THE HOLLYWOOD WITH SOME MATES.”
